

SundayLeague launched on website of leading football magazine FourFourTwo.

London, AUGUST 2004

Cat Games announced a new online partnership between the world's biggest online football management game, www.sundayleague.com and Four Four Two magazine's online arm, www.fourfourtwo.com.

A SundayLeague game will link from the website as an extension to Cat Games's partnership with Premium TV. Premium TV manages over 80 Football Club and other Football-associated websites in the UK.

Four Four Two is the latest addition to the deal, following fully-branded, dedicated SundayLeague games launched on the websites of leading football clubs Glasgow Rangers and Newcastle United.

SundayLeague is already present across the remainder of the PTV network of 80 football club sites.
